

Nicholas Getka

Education:

Georgetown University – Washington, D.C.

Expected Graduation May 2017

Bachelor of Arts in Computer Science and in Economics

- Computer Science Major GPA: 3.48, Cumulative GPA: 3.31
- Related Courses:
  - 4 Introductory Computer Science Courses
  - Data Structures and Algorithms
  - Information Retrieval and Introduction to Data Science

Gonzaga College High School – Washington, D.C.

August 2009 - June 2013

- First Honors

Employment Experience:

Georgetown Computer Science Department – Washington, D.C.

Fall 2015 – Present

Teaching Assistant – Computer Science I and II

- Grading the 5 required projects
- Assisting the 145 students understand the class material and resolve bugs and issues in their code.

Federal Reserve Board of Directors – Washington, D.C.

February 2016 - April 2016

Intern – Division of Consumer and Community Affairs (DCCA)

- Sole intern for the Spring Semester
- Assisted the Division's 2 Research Assistants and 3 Economists with their research projects.
- The Tracking Project – Developed a procedure by which the DCCA will track the popularity and usage of their publication after release.
- Literature Review on the "Sharing/Gig Economy" – Performed the exploratory literature review of papers, article, and other publications already written about the "sharing/gig economy."

Programming Skills:

Website Building

- Familiar with process of creating a website, which includes understanding HTML, CSS, MySQL, Bootstrap, and PHP
- nicholasgetka.com

Docker Containers and Virtualization

- Worked extensively with RHEL Virtual Machines, wrote deployment scripts for VMs and Docker Containers

Skills and Interests:

- Chinese (Intermediate Level) and French (Beginner Level)
- Competing in Marathons and Half-Marathons
- Singing and playing the guitar. Often performing at Open-Mics.